Dear parents, carers and friends of Saint Mary’s,

Thank you to all of those who have asked about my time away overseas. My wife and youngest daughter completed the Paris Marathon and my eldest daughter and I completed the less gruelling 5km Breakfast Walk. It was wonderful to have some time away with my family. Even though I only missed 8 school days, I am still desperately trying to catch up on the work I missed over that time.

At the end of this term, we will farewell two much-admired staff members – Mr Chris Cook (Indonesian & secondary teacher) and Mrs Jenny Foody-Versace (Yr 6). Both teachers have given much to our community over the years and will be greatly missed. Mr Cook will take leave to pursue a teaching career overseas and Mrs Foody-Versace will take maternity leave for the impending birth of her new baby. We will advertise for these roles in the next fortnight.

Last week, Mr Erwin was taken to hospital in Brisbane and required some emergency surgery. He will recover at home for at least the rest of this week at this stage. I would ask families to contact Mr Dalton, Mr Perrett or Pastoral Coordinators (P-6 Mrs Radcliffe, Yrs 7 – 9 Mrs Robertson & Yrs 10 – 12 Mr Fomatti) if they need to make any enquiries about Pastoral matters. I would thank all of these people for stepping up in Mr Erwin’s absence and ask that we keep Mr Erwin in our prayers as he recovers.

We have had many great events over the past fortnight including:

- College Cross Country: Congratulations to Rush House on winning our Cross Country and to our Age Champions and all who took part. A big thank you to Mr Medlen, Ms Inwood and all the staff, parents and students who helped with this event. Best of luck to all of our students who will compete in the regional Cross Count.
- Dance Eisteddfod: Congratulations to our Year 10s who won their division and our Seniors who came second. Many thanks to Mrs Arden for preparing our students for this event.
- Art Excursion: Thanks to Mrs Langford-Martoo who despite being stuck in the rain for a few extra hours, took our Art students on a wonderful excursion to the Art Gallery.

Planning is continuing for a few big events this term including:

- Combined Anniversary Celebrations: I would again like to encourage all families to join us for our Anniversary Mass and Dinner from 6pm on Saturday, May 30th. Please also let any prospective families that you may know that our Open Day will occur from 10am – 2pm on Sunday, May 31st.
- New Buildings: Everything is on track for our new buildings to go out to tender in June and hopefully be completed by December and ready for classes in 2016. For any new families, we are building 7 new classrooms (6 secondary and 1 primary), a Student Support Centre and a new Music room. This should provide us with all of the great facilities we need across our College community for the next few years. As I have said in previous newsletters, next term may be tight for rooms as we lose the current Music block to development, but we will weather the storm for one Semester in order to have better facilities in the long run.
- New Uniform: Just a reminder to all families that our new uniform will begin in 2016 with a changeover period of two years. During this two year period, families may wear either the new uniform or old uniform, but not mix and match pieces from both. As mentioned earlier this year, we have dropped our old supplier as they have not been able to provide us with uniforms at the agreed time. remainder of the year with a few new items beginning to appear. I would ask that all students continue to adhere to our uniform standards, even if we need to bring a few new items in early. We may also need to bring some generic items in to make up for our past uniform company’s inability to keep us supplied with uniforms. Old uniform parts will continue to be on sale during the two year hand-over period until we run out of stock.

"The performance that matters is the measurable gain in student performance."

CM 1-5-15

The Courier Mail recently published an article about what constitutes a good school.

Although it started with a football analogy, the point of the article quickly became clear. A school or a football club is good or effective if students improve, and not if they get above average OP scores or win a premiership.

Here are some of the sections from that article.

WHAT better way to frame the public vs private school debate, which is back on again thanks to recent research by the University of Queensland, than with a solid footy metaphor.

One of my sons plays AFL for a local suburban club in Brisbane. It’s a good club. They take masses of kids in every year and give them an excellent grounding in the game. Some take to it, some don’t. But they all learn more about footy. Every few decades someone from the club even makes it to the AFL. This pretty-good club also has a senior team that wins the local Brisbane comp every so often. But I am reasonably certain if they were to take on Collingwood or Geelong (or even the Brisbane Lions) they would be easily beaten.

Everybody knows this. Everybody accepts this. And nobody suggests that this means my local club is a bad club. We all know that the professional AFL club has spent millions recruiting a team full of A-list players. Did the AFL coaches make those players brilliant? No. They recruited players they already knew were brilliant from clubs like ours.

We happily accept that this is how sports work. But when it comes to another area of skill acquisition, suddenly we turn off our common sense and gullibly accept self-interested marketing.

In Australia, some schools choose their student body. These schools are overwhelmingly fee-receiving “private” schools and they target their marketing at high-income parents (which, unfortunately in this country, correlates with academic performance). To egg the pudding they also top up the better-than-average kids with proven performers using academic scholarships. Then when these kids perform exactly the way their family income and results would predict they might (wherever they went to school), they use those results as marketing fodder for the next generation.

The only reasonable way of comparing my local club with Collingwood is to measure the value it adds. Player A had these measurable proficiencies at the start of the season and improved them by this measurable margin by the end. It doesn’t matter whether the player is in the worst of the under-8s or the next Gary Ablett. A good coach should be able to get measurable improvement from every player.

This is no less true in schools. The performance that matters – the only criteria that should matter – is the measurable gain in student performance. This means measurable gain for every student. It means moving every child forward every year. It does not mean showering praise on schools whose only claim to fame was ensuring they selected the right kids in the first place.

Find the schools that are adding value and let student gain be your yardstick, not the number of BMWs in the carpark. Do that, and you are sure to make an excellent choice for your children’s education.

Mr John Dalton

Term 2 Fees due Friday 8th May
A final reminder that unless you have a formalised instalment payment arrangement in place with the College that your Term 2 account is due for payment by Friday, 8th May. While the College will accept payments by instalments, we do need to know the amount and timing of these payments. It’s preferred that these instalments be done via Direct Debits or BPAY. If you have not already done so, please contact Briony Hoare, Finance Secretary, with details of your planned instalments to prevent unnecessary fee follow up procedures.

Lost Property
A lot of lost property was returned to the Office at the end of Term 1 from camps. This can be collected or inspected at the Student Services Counter.

Cooler Weather
It has started to get cold, please make sure children are dressed appropriately to suit weather conditions.

NAPLAN
Just a reminder to parents of students in year 3,5,7,9 - the NAPLAN test is in week 4 next week – Tuesday 12th, Wednesday 13th and Thursday 14th May.

If you have concerns about your child sitting NAPLAN please see Ms Radcliffe or contact her via phone – 4162 2011.

There are some special considerations that can be put in place if these considerations are usually employed in the general classroom. For example, a little extra time to complete a task etc.

Students can sit part of NAPLAN if that places less stress on a student, provided it is with parent consent and after speaking with Ms. Radcliffe. Please see Ms. Radcliffe if you want further information.

If after a conversation with Ms Radcliffe your child is withdrawn, exempt, or has adjustments made, these forms need to be completed by the parent and returned to the school on or before Monday 11th May. These forms are available from Ms Radcliffe.

Spark Engineering Camp

Non-for-profit organisation Youth Without Borders is once again holding the annual ‘Spark Engineering Camp’. Spark is a week-long university experience specifically for students who face barriers to realizing their potential. The students undertake a week’s worth of personal development, engineering and social activities. By providing insight into engineering, belief in their potential and first hand access to current university students during the week, Spark hopes to bridge the gap between school and further education.

If a student applicant is successful, they receive a full scholarship to the camp including travel. Typically past students have come from a diverse range of demographics including:

- Indigenious
- Torres Strait Islander
- Refugee
- Low socio-economic
- Foster care
- Learning difficulty
- Special needs and
- Rural

As parents the first step is to try to encourage your child if you think they would fit the category and have them discuss the idea with one of their subject teachers. A teacher or caregiver will be responsible for making the nomination. The student does not have to be on an OP pathway.

Camp Locations & Dates

Accelerated Reader News
Students are getting back into the swing of things this term with the Accelerated Reader Program. They should be borrowing books according to their levels, reading for at least 20 minutes a day and doing quizzes at lunchtimes in the library, in Period 5 class time or Monday, Thursday and Friday mornings from 8.15am. Please see me if you would like support with this program to help your child successfully participate in this program.

2015 Premier’s Reading Challenge
Once again this year I am delighted to help P-7 students participate in the 2015 Premier’s Reading Challenge.

As well as being fun, the challenge aims to boost children’s literacy skills by encouraging students to read widely for pleasure and learning, develop their imagination and cultivate a passion for literature.

Research shows that young people who read for pleasure excel in a range of learning activities. Reading widely will bring untold benefits throughout their lives.

The reading period for the 2015 Premier’s Reading Challenge at Saint Mary’s starts on Monday 18th May and closes Friday 28th August.

This year the Premier has challenged all state and non-state school students from Prep to Year 2 to read or experience 20 books, Years 3 and 4 to read 20 books and Years 5 to 7 to read 15 books. ‘Experiencing’ books can include shared reading, listening to stories, or reading picture books.

Students will have received a reading challenge record sheet and bookmark to help them keep track of the books they have read.

Every student who completes the challenge will receive a Certificate of Achievement signed by the Premier. It will be my great pleasure to present these certificates to students in Term 4.

For more information about Premier’s Reading Challenge, please visit: http://education.qld.gov.au/schools/readingchallenge/

You can play a big part in your children’s future by encouraging them to be part of this challenge.

Visual Art Excursion- aka The Big Wet!

Friday morning 20 excited teenagers and 2 very excited teachers headed off to Brisbane to visit the Queensland Art Gallery and the Gallery of Modern Art. We were lucky enough to be seeing the David Lynch exhibition, Lynch is the famous movie director of ‘Twin Peaks’ fame. The students were so respectful and engaged in the work. A member of the public made special mention to us that we were the best school there that day!

We also visited ‘Creative Generations’ which was the best work from Queensland Senior Art students from 2014. We had enough time to have lunch and also visit 3 other world-class exhibitions. Our favourite piece was the Yayoi Kusama room, entitled “Soul under the Moon”, which was a room of mirrors, coloured planets and UV lights; it was so beautiful!

We did leave early due to a bad weather forecast but unfortunately still got stuck in the traffic 5 kilometres back from the Burpengary Weigh bridge which was experiencing a flood event. Lawrie our bus driver, Mr Dalton and Mrs Hauritz looked after us and made sure we got home safe and sound, just a little late.

Thanks to everyone who attended, this is a once a year excursion that will affect the quality and thought behind out student’s work for years to come.
